What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

 The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to cash in early or you may have to pay significant extra costs to cash in early. You may not be able to sell your product easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact our capacity to pay you.

There is no minimum guaranteed return. You could lose some or all of your investment (see the section 'what happens if we are unable to pay you').

Be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Beside the market risks included in the risk indicator, other risks may affect the Sub-Fund, including counterparty risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, operational risk and investment risk.

For further information on risks please see the "Risk Factors" section of the Prospectus of the Sub-Fund.

This Sub-Fund does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

This Risk and Reward section is not a guarantee that it will remain unchanged. More information regarding risks may be found in the "Risk Factors" section in the Company's Offering Memorandum.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. Costs Over Time

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

The costs are based on the following assumptions:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% Annual Return).
- For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended Holding Period (RHP): 5 years

The RHP is based on our assessment of the risk and reward and time frame in which it is expected to achieve the investment objective of the Sub-Fund. Your specific risk appetite needs to be considered for any investments made. You may receive less than expected if you cash in earlier than the RHP. There is no guarantee that the investment objective of the Sub-Fund will be achieved and investment results may vary substantially over time.
